Notes from the boss.....

The performance of our Youth team in retaining the Lancashire Cup on Monday night gave everyone here at Bolton Wanderers cause for enthusiasm and optimism. If you ask what motivates people at a club it is a performance like that. To have lifted the trophy two years in succession shows that Steve Carroll and his troops are getting things right at their level—and that can only be good for the club as a whole.

Generally speaking club's success is measured by the achievements of it's senior team and here at Burnden Park our main priority this season is promotion. But you must also look to the way things operate at the other levels and the fact that we have been doing well in the Central League and with the Youth team pleases me when I take stock of the overall picture.

Publication deadlines meant these notes had to be written in advance of Thursday's deadline on transfers, so it is impossible to outline here the success or otherwise we had in our efforts to recruit new signings. All that I can say is that whatever the outcome, we could not have worked harder to try to get the right sort of players into the club.

Behind the scenes we have been let down on certain deals and found asking prices ridiculously high in others. I could easily have spent money, of course, but just to bring a player in for £10,000 or £15,000 for no other reason than because the deadline was approaching would have been detrimental to the club.

The whole idea of signings is to improve the stock of players at a club and I would be failing in my duties if I spent money on players without improving our stock.

If things go well on the fitness front for players like Dean Crombie, Steve Elliott and Jeff Chandler, we could soon have them available for first team selection—and that will provide a bonus in itself.

Unfortunately we've had our problems with long term injuries but we have done reasonably well and remained in the top six for most of the year. We have 10 games to go, kicking off with this afternoon's against Rochdale, and we are certainly optimistic that we can still achieve our aim. We have every chance if we apply ourselves—with the players who are already here without necessarily having to rely on new ones.

ROCHDALE

Last season was probably the most difficult Rochdale has faced in its history.

Having joined the club in the middle of December, it did not take me long to realise it would be a difficult battle to maintain our Football League status. With a few weeks to go to the end of the season we found ourselves in bottom position, but with four games out of the last six at home it was always in our hands whether or not we avoided the drop.

It is difficult for players to play to the best of their ability when their full-time employment is in jeopardy. But the players responded magnificently to the pressures and we managed to achieve the victories needed for survival.

We are now looking forward to a new season and if we can acquire a couple of new faces, the club will find itself in such a perilous position again. My ambition is to see Rochdale at the other end of the table getting among the sides fighting for the play-offs and promotion.

The crowds of between 4,000 and 6,000 turned up when we needed them most towards the end of the season, showing there is still an interest in the town for a Football League club. It is up to us to keep that support by giving the folk of Rochdale something to shout about.

VISITORS PEN FILE

KEITH WELCH—Goalkeeper. Born in Bolton, Keith had a spell as a Junior with Bolton Wanderers before moving to Spotland to try his luck. He made some impressive reserve team performances and also played in the club's youth team. But he had to wait for his first team chance until February last year, when regular choice Dave Redfern broke a finger. Keith has played in every League and Cup game since then.

JOHN BRAMHALL—Defender. Born in Warrington, he began his career with Tranmere Rovers before moving on to Bury where he had several successful seasons. He joined Dale in time for the 1986-87 season in which he was the club's leading scorer with 11 League and Cup goals and is now team captain.

GEOFF LOMAX—Defender. Born in Manchester, is in his first season with Dale. He made 25 appearances for Manchester City and had a spell on loan to Wolves before joining Carlisle United. He joined Dale on a free transfer from Carlisle.

BRIAN STANTON—Defender. Brian made more than 80 appearances for Bury before joining Huddersfield Town. More than 200 games later he left Leeds Road. He had a loan spell with Wrexham but was playing for Morecambe when Dale attracted his services last season.

JASON SMART—Defender. Local lad Jason has worked his way up from the club's junior teams to become an important member of the first team squad. He made his senior debut in March 1986, at home to Burnley, but didn't figure regularly until the following season.

SIMON HOLDEN—Midfield. Born in Littleborough, first joined Dale as an apprentice but then decided to quit pro football. He played with local Sunday League side Wheat-sheaf until manager Eddie Gray brought him back to Spotland.

SHAUN REID—Midfield. Is now the longest serving player on the club's books. He joined Dale under the YTS Scheme in 1983, soon gained a place in the first team. His career has been disrupted by injuries. Born in Hutton, is younger brother of Everton and England star Peter Reid; had junior spells with Manchester City and Bolton Wanderers.

LEE WARREN—Midfield. Lee aged 18, joined Dale on free transfer from Leeds United early in the season. A highly rated player, although he didn't get a chance to play in Leeds first team.

LYNDON SIMMONDS—Forward. Born in Pontypool, joined Dale on loan from Leeds United last season and his goals proved vital in Dale's successful bid to avoid relegation. He moved from Leeds to Spotland last summer, made nine senior appearances for Leeds United and had a spell on loan to Swansea City before joining Rochdale.

CARL HARRIS—Forward. Carl is Dale's latest signing. The former Welsh international was previously with Bury, but most of his career to date was spent with Leeds United and Charlton Athletic.

DEAN WALLING—Forward. Dean is another newcomer at Spotland this season. Was previously with Leeds United, had several substitute appearances but had to wait until December for his first full outing.

MARK HUNT—Forward. A 17 year old with a handful of senior appearances. Scored his debut League goal away to Exeter last September.

JOHN SEASMAN—Midfield. Born in Liverpool, began his career with Tranmere Rovers. Moved on to Luton Town, Millwall and Rotherham United in turn, had a spell with Cardiff City and first played for Dale on loan from the Welsh club. He then signed for Chesterfield but a £5,000 fee brought him back to Spotland.

STEWART MELLISH—Midfield. Aged 18, was drafted into the first team for his debut against Carlisle United.

PAUL HANCOX—Midfield. A 17 year old midfield or forward player who hails from Manchester. Made his debut, as substitute at Carlisle.

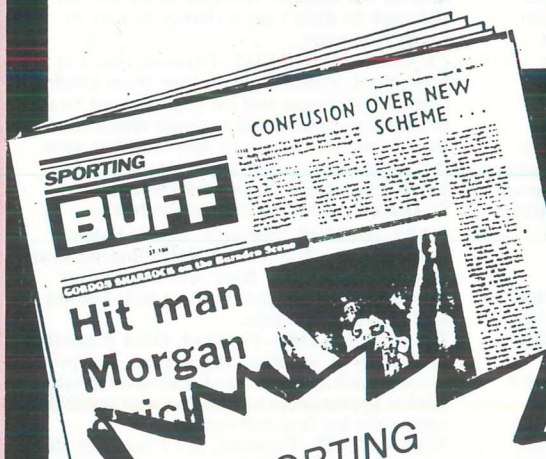

ERNE MOSS. An experienced striker, is on loan to Dale for a month, from Scarborough. His previous clubs include Chesterfield and Stockport County.

MATCH REPORT

First Division leaders, Liverpool kept up their trend for hitting the headlines—but this time for failing to win!! Yes, after 29 unbeaten League games and chasing a League record, they failed at the last hurdle to neighbours Everton in Sunday's televised spectacular at Goodison Park 1-0. Second and third placed Man. Utd. and Notts Forest respectively, settled for a scoreless draw at the County Ground. At the bottom Watford failed at West Ham and Division 2 is beckoning with Oxford and Portsmouth also in jeopardy.

Promotion candidates Aston Villa notched up their 13th away win of the season at Reading and are now two points clear of nearest rivals Blackburn who had to claw themselves back to a 3-3 home draw against Leicester. At Maine Road, Man. City had to settle for a share of the spoils where Swindon were visitors. In Division 3 unpredictable Blackpool secured a fine victory over Ian Greaves' Mansfield. An own goal by Doncaster defender Holmes secured victory for Bury at Gigg Lane where Manager Martin Dobson had placed six of his players on the transfer list. Neighbours Preston lost by the only goal at Chester and promotion hunting Wigan produced a below par performance at Rotherham, 1-1 the final scoreline. A crowd of 24,000 packed into Rocker Park for Sunderland's top of the table clash with Notts County but it finished all square at 1-1.

In the Fourth Division pressure at the top is beginning to tell. We suffered a 2-0 defeat at Swansea where the Vetch Field pitch is reported to have made a 'lottery' of the game. Burnley also went under surprisingly at Stockport—a fine victory for Asa Hartford's men and handily placed Torquay finished as they started at home to Peterborough. At the bottom struggling Newport who look doomed for the G.M. Vauxhall Conference League next term suffered more bad news in midweek when it was revealed that debts of £200,000 could force them to fold.

Midweek saw activity on the international scene where England entertained Holland in a pre-European Championship 'friendly' at Wembley. The Dutch paraded the World's most costliest player, Ruud Gullit at £6.5 million after his move to A.C. Milan and the game proved to be an appetiser for the 'real thing' in June. Chelsea Manager John Hollins parted company with the Club in mid week and Thursday's transfer deadline caused a flurry of signings. Mansfield's highly rated keeper, Kevin Hitchcock moved to Stamford Bridge for £125,000 and Halifax will have eased their financial plight with the sale of Rick Holden to Watford for a similar figure. Arsenal Manager, George Graham splashed out £600,000 for Sheffield Wednesday's Brian Marwood whom he'd long admired.

ALEC LINDSAY
EX-LIVERPOOL & ENGLAND

Alec Lindsay might be considered as one of the forgotten stars of football—but he wants it that way. After progressing through the ranks at Bury, he was called to the boss' office one morning after training. There he was met by Bill Shankly. Alec said, "I was dumb struck, speechless, but Mr. Shankly told me I'd be playing at Liverpool subject to a medical." At Anfield, Alec had to serve his apprenticeship spending 1½ seasons in the Reserves, along with Clemence, Keegan, Lloyd, Hall, Toshack, etc.

Shankly used to describe Alec's left foot 'mashie niblick', the old name for a type of golf club. Alec continued, "I can remember spending all day kicking a tennis ball against the garden fence as a kid and loved doing it, and eventually found I could chip a ball over the opposition even at short distances, hence leading to Shank's description."

Alec broke onto the first team scene after the departure of Gerry Byrne, "and I'd never played left back in my life before" he admits. His debut was at Newcastle and played well. The following week it was Europe and he again played well. "It just took off from there," he added.

He recalls some of the team talks Shank's used to conduct, like the time they were playing Man. Utd. "Bill Shankly described Charlton as a one footed player, that Best will have been out all night, Stepney can't catch a ball and Crerand slower than him." On another occasion when Notts. Forest were visitors Shank's entered the dressing room twenty minutes to kick off to declare, "they've just arrived—they've got the cheek to turn up!" He was the most dedicated man I have known." Then there's the fans whom Alec describes as "fantastic, especially the Kop—they are worth a goal start."

He pointed to their knowledge of the game, dedication and unbiased views. "For some reason they have always appreciated good 'keepers. Just ask Pat Jennings or Peter Shilton. They have songs for individual players and sometimes even the players had to smile during the game." Speaking about humour Alec remembers the time Liverpool were playing at Luton. "Their manager had just won the Bells Whisky of the Month Award and Eric Morecambe, then a Director of the 'Hatters' came into the dressing room and asked us to finish the bottle before we went out onto the Park."

It was only last week that Alec was asked to go on T.V. but refused. "I prefer others to take the limelight" he said. Over the years Alec has either lent or given away his personal memorabilia. "The only things I have left are my F.A. Cup medals and two Championship medals and they're locked away in the bank." He even lent his four England jerseys and they have never been returned. So Alec Lindsay is now tucked away in his pub in Leigh, along with his wife Barbara, but he has happy memories of a glittering career.

* Alec's caps were earned in 1974 when Joe Mercer took over as caretaker. They were unbeaten against Argentina, Bulgaria, Rumania, Yugoslavia.

FLASH BACK

5 YEARS AGO. 26th March, 1983.

The Wanderers crashed 2-0 at home to bottom club Derby County to increase the pressure in the fight against relegation from the Second Division. In the 27th minute Wanderers' keeper Jim McDonagh saved a penalty from Archie Gemmell but they failed to capitalise on their good fortune. After only 47 seconds of the second half Mike Brolly opened the scoring and in the 57th minute Kevin Wilson wrapped up the points as Derby strung together their eighth game without defeat. The Wanderers gave a debut to Stuart Gray who had been signed on loan from Nottingham Forest.

2nd April, 1983. Bolton went down to their third consecutive defeat when Leeds United won 2-1 at Burnden. The Wanderers were without Paul Jones, who missed his first game of the season, through injury, but gave a debut to £5,000 signing from Everton Brian Borrows. All three goals came from corners with Adrian Butterworth putting Leeds in front before Simon Rudge equalised. Paul Hart headed home Leeds' winner in the 75th minute.

10 YEARS AGO. 21st March, 1978.

Bolton went down for the first time in nine League games with a 2-1 defeat at Luton Town. Alan West gave the home side the lead in the 18th minute and Phil Boersma appeared to have settled the issue with a second four minutes from time. Within seconds the Wanderers reduced the arrears when Paul Jones galloped through for a goal but it came too late to save the game.

25th March, 1978. Peter Reid and Paul Jones netted the goals in a 2-1 home win over Blackpool that put the Wanderers back on the promotion rails.

27th March, 1978. The Wanderers came from behind to win a point in a 1-1 Easter Monday draw at Notts County. Mick Vinter gave the home side the lead in only the 2nd minute but Neil Whatmore struck the equaliser in the 38th minute.

15 YEARS AGO. 21st March, 1973.

Bolton extended their unbeaten home record to one year and 24 games with a 2-0 win over Shrewsbury Town. Jimmy Redfern and Stuart Lee were the second half scorers.

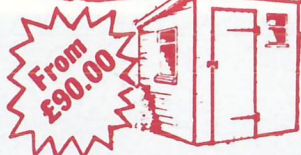

24th March, 1973. The Wanderers came from behind to draw 1-1 with Southend at Roots Hall. Peter Taylor put United in front but Paul Jones headed home an equaliser.

28th March, 1973. The clubs best gate for over ten years, 33,010, saw the Wanderers home record go as Blackburn Rovers won 1-0 thanks to a 78th minute goal from Derek Fazackerley. Despite the defeat the Wanderers remained at the top of the Third Division.

RESERVES NEWS

SCUNTHORPE UNITED RES. . . . 1 BOLTON WANDERERS RES. . . . 2 9th March, 1988.

The Wanderers ended a run of three consecutive defeats and put themselves back into the promotion frame with a deserved success at Scunthorpe United.

The pitch was heavy going thanks to a downpour an hour before kick off and it got gradually worse as the game wore on.

United had the better of the chances in a goalless first half with Steve Johnson twice going close. Dave McKearney and Stuart Storer both produced powerful shots that tested the experienced Ron Green in the United goal.

The Wanderers took command for the first thirty minutes of the second period and this was when they netted the goals that won with both goalscorers recording their first of the season.

Bolton took the lead on the hour having already seen a Garry Brown cross headed onto the underside of his own bar by United defender Stevenson. The goal was one to savour—a 25 yard free kick from Phil Neal soaring into the top right hand corner of the net after Storer had been fouled on a run at goal.

The second goal came only three minutes later when Ian Callaghan stormed through the mud in the middle of the park, evading two defenders, before shooting low into the net.

A third goal was only denied by a desperate last ditch tackle on youngster Kevin Still who was playing his first full Central League game for the club.

Seven minutes from time United pulled a goal back when Ian Richardson headed home after a left wing corner. The home side threw players forward in an attempt to save the game but the Wanderers defence, which adopted an effective sweeper system, stood firm in the dying minutes.

Team: Price, Brown, O'Brien, Callaghan, Jackson, Winstanley, Storer, Still, Stevens, McKearney, Neal. Subs-Banks and Booth.

The reserves next home match is this coming Wednesday, 30th March, 1988, when fellow promotion hopefuls Stoke City are the visitors. Earlier this season the Wanderers took a point from a 1-1 draw at the Victoria Ground.

You might have heard about Kelly's Heroes but forget all about them because after last Monday's tremendous win in the Final of the Lancashire F.A. Youth Team Final we now have a new breed, 'Carroll's Heroes'. It was a performance as good as any down here at Burnden over the last few seasons and proves yet again that the young lads are a match for anybody at Youth team level.

Steve Carroll, the Youth team manager, was very proud of his team after the game and was even overheard in the Boardroom asking "Do we keep the Trophy after we have retained it for a third year next season." The 2-0 scoreline certainly did not do justice to the lads and the young Latics got off quite lightly with that result. Most of the first team were present at the game and it must have put them in good heart for the remainder of the season, knowing that the future players are blossoming so well.

Back to today's action and a warm welcome to our close neighbours, Rochdale, who have had such a traumatic season. The Dale started the season well enough but unfortunately due to financial trouble have had to sell some of their leading players, including ex Wanderer Mark Gavin who took the High Road up to Hearts to link up with Wayne Foster and Neil Berry. Tommy Cannon also resigned as chairman, but Eddie Gray has again steadied the ship and Fourth Division football looks guaranteed at Spotland again next season.

Today's three points are vital for us to maintain our position in the leading group and hopefully come twenty-to-five this afternoon that's what we will have got.

PS—A special Souvenir Programme was produced for the Youth Team Final and a limited number are still available in the Club Shop priced at 20p each.

Burnden Park News

YOUTH TEAM TRIUMPH!

Match report.

The Wanderers Youth team retained the Lancashire FA Youth Cup with a convincing 2-0 victory over Wigan Athletic at Burnden Park last Monday evening.

After an initial settling down period the Wanderers dominated the game and the scoreline could have been more emphatic. The Wanderers even had the 'luxury' of missing a penalty awarded after Wigan 'keeper Ian Banford had prevented Mike Jeffrey from getting clear in the 28th minute. The normally reliable Derek Booth, who had converted a penalty in last season's final, saw his well placed shot saved by the 'keeper.

To their credit the Wanderers didn't let their heads drop and continual pressure paid off in the 42nd minute when Mike Jeffrey turned to rifle home a low shot that caught the Wigan defence cold. The second goal came in the 62nd minute and was due reward for a persistent Mark Raven who robbed Alan Johnson before racing clear to chip the 'keeper.

Further chances came and went Wanderers way whilst Ruan Price dealt comfortably with his only real test which came late in the game.

Seven of last years winning team once again collected winners medals with the Trophy, presented to Chris O'Brien, becoming the first to a Wanderers team at Burnden since 1978.

High standards are always wanted by Steve Carroll, the Wanderers Youth Coach, and after Monday's excellent achievement in retaining the Trophy that is exactly what he got. "A very good team performance" was how he summed it up. "The lads looked comfortable out there against a Wigan team that is highly rated, it just proves playing on good surfaces we have shown we are a force to be reckoned with at Youth level."

Steve was also quick to praise his dedicated team who work along side him, putting many an hour in at evenings and weekends. The scouting system and School of Excell-ance are both producing promising results and that can only be good for the future of Bolton Wanderers Football Club.

Team: Price, Spooner, O'Brien, Banks, Jackson, Halligan, Callaghan, Still, Raven, Jeffrey, Booth. Subs-Moran and Gaskell.

H.B. WANDERERS

This season the club have entered a new venture by the introduction of an Under 16's side playing in the Town's Junior League—Bolton Boys Fed. At the half way stage of the season the team are second having a record of played 12, won 10, drawn 2 and still in the Cup competition.

With a relatively small squad and half the side 12 months younger than the playing age the side has been very successful. The side had six players in the Inter League squad which won the Lancashire Inter League Cup and have had two boys honoured by being selected for the Lancashire F.A. squad to play at Easter. The aim of the side is to bring potential young players together and play them in a club atmosphere with the hope of YTS scheme at the end of their two years with the Junior side. Already five of the players have made appearances in the 'A' team and could be the lifeline of B.W.F.C.

NOTEBOOK

REFLECTIONS

Rochdale make their first League visit for 15 years to Burnden Park today and will no doubt be hoping to prevent the Wanderers keeping up their record of having scored twice in each of the previous four games between the clubs.

Rochdale's first League visit to Burnden was on April 12th 1972 with both clubs in the Third Division. The Wanderers ran out 2-1 winners with all the goals coming in a seven minute spell. Firstly 18 years old Paul Jones netted his first League goal for the Wanderers in the 17th minute and John Byrom grabbed a second five minutes later nodding home after Roy Greaves had struck the bar. A minute later Jack Howarth scrambled home a reply for Dale.

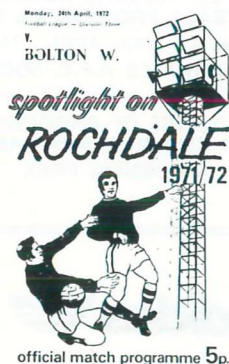

Twelve days later the Wanderers made their first League visit to Spotland but had to settle for a point from a 2-2 draw after being two up before the interval. Ron Phillips opened the scoring in the 6th minute and half an hour later Garry Jones latched onto a long Charlie Wright clearance for the second. Rochdale struck back with goals from Jack Howarth and Malcolm Darling who was later to join the Wanderers on their return to the Second Division.

Season 1972-73 produced identical results. In October 1972 the Wanderers twice fought from behind to win a point. Peter Gowans and Reg Jenkins were the Rochdale goal scorers whilst John Byrom and Peter Nicholson struck for Bolton.

The latest League game between the clubs took place at Burnden in March 1973 with a crowd of 17,870, looking for Bolton to keep up the promotion push, stunned when Bill Atkins put lowly Rochdale in front after six minutes.

The equaliser for the Wanderers eventually came in the 51st minute when John Byrom headed home an Alan Waldron across and Garry Jones headed home Bolton's winner in the 68th minute.

The Wanderers also remain undefeated at the hands of Rochdale in the cup competitions. In the League Cup the Wanderers won 6-3 in a first round tie at Burnden in 1969 and by 4-0 in a second round tie at Spotland in 1973. Our paths have never crossed in the FA Cup but our most recent cup meeting was in the Freight Rover Trophy which resulted in a 1-0 win for the Wanderers at Spotland in 1985.

OUT & ABOUT

BOLTON F.C.

My favourite team is BOLTON,
They play in blue and white,
MARK CAME is the star defender,
TREVOR MORGAN'S good because of his height.

BOLTON get 10,000 fans every week,
They play at BURDEN PARK,
When the opposition are on the attack,
The fans call out for MARK.

Whenever TREVOR MORGAN has got the ball,
You can hear the Great Lever choir,
When he scores another goal,
Everyone thinks will he ever tire?

When BOLTON win DIVISION FOUR,
Other teams will be feeling pain,
BOLTON are the CHAMPIONS,
Partly because of MARK CAME.

A poem by Mark Coates, aged 12 of Little Lever, about his favourite football team.
